Job Description
Lecturer
Department of Statistics 100387

The Department of Statistics at Oklahoma State University is seeking candidates for a lecturer to teach four classes in both the Fall 2018 and Spring 2019 semesters.

Masters in Statistics is required. Duties include undergraduate and graduate level teaching and participating in various departmental activities. For full consideration, send letter of application, CV, and placement materials by April 20, 2018 to Dr. Mark Payton at mark.payton@okstate.edu. However, applications will continue to be reviewed until the position is filled.

Position is contingent upon available funding.

Oklahoma State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity/E-verify employer committed to diversity and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment and will not be discriminated against based on age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor’s legal duty to furnish information. 41 CFR 60-1.35(c). Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Offer of employment is contingent upon verification of an individual’s eligibility for employment in the United States.
