The Department of Statistics at Oklahoma State University is seeking candidates for a visiting assistant professor position to begin August 2018. Duties include undergraduate and graduate level teaching and research. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Statistics. For best consideration apply by June 30, 2018. Position is open until filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vita, transcripts, research and teaching statements, publication list, and three letters of recommendation to: https://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/jobs/12038

The Department of Statistics is administratively located within the College of Arts and Sciences at Oklahoma State University and currently has nine full time faculty tenured/tenure track and 4 visitors and 20-25 graduate students. The Department offers B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees.

Oklahoma State University is located in Stillwater in north-central Oklahoma, approximately 60 miles from both Oklahoma City and Tulsa. The University has about 23,000 students, including 5,000 who are enrolled in the Graduate College.

For more information about the Statistics Department, see our web page at http://statistics.okstate.edu

Position is contingent upon available funding. Oklahoma State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity/E-verify employer committed to diversity and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment and will not be discriminated against based on age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor’s legal duty to furnish information. 41 CFR 60-1.35(c)